

I want to make a regular gift to help Promise Foundation support disadvantaged teenagers with a one-to-one mentoring relationship that helps unlock their unique potential.

Supporting Promise Foundation through a direct debit means each payment will appear on your bank statement and you are free to cancel it at any time.

Please add to your donations through Gift Aid.

If you are a UK tax payer, we can reclaim 25p for every £1 you donate.

Yes, I want Promise Foundation to treat all donations I have made for the four years prior to this year, and all donations I make from the date of this declaration until I notify you otherwise, as Gift Aid donations. I am a UK tax payer and understand that if I pay less income tax and/or capital gains tax than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations in that tax year it is my responsibility to pay any difference.

Today's date:

Please ensure you provide your full name and address, and let us know if you wish to cancel your declaration, or if your tax status, name or address changes.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay direct debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your direct debit Promise Foundation will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request Promise Foundation to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your direct debit, by Promise Foundation or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society. – If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when Promise Foundation asks you to.
- You can cancel a direct debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us
